Welcome back to another school year! The SSLA executive hopes everyone had a relaxing summer filled with fun, family, and friends and feels rejuvenated to work with students and teachers in our school libraries.

Web Site

If you haven't had the chance, please visit our fabulous new Web site <http://www.ssla.ca>. The SSLA Web site contains The Medium, teaching ideas, professional development opportunities, and links to blogs and wikis related to teacher-librarianship. Please consider submitting an article, lesson plan, or photograph to The Medium.

50th Anniversary

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the SSLA. The SSLA will celebrate this milestone by offering several fantastic PD opportunities throughout the year. The first session will entail a virtual workshop with Sharon Grimes. Sharon Grimes is the author of Reading is Our Business: How Libraries Can Foster Reading Comprehension. See the SSLA Web site (www.ssla.ca) to register and for more information.
